

FEDERAL BILL EMERSON GOOD SAMARITAN FOOD DONATION ACT

Millions of pound of food and groceries go to waste each year. To encourage companies, organizations and individuals to donate healthy food that would otherwise go to waste, they are protected from criminal and civil liability under the Good Samaritan Food Donation Act.

The Federal Bill Emerson Good Samaritan Food Donation Act

On October 1, 1996, President Clinton signed this act to encourage donation of food and grocery products to non-profit organizations for distribution to individuals in need.

This law:

- * Protects you from liability when you donate to a non-profit organization;
- * Protects you from civil and criminal liability should the product donated in good faith later cause harm to the recipient;
- * Standardizes donor liability exposure. You or your legal counsel do not need to investigate liability laws in 50 states; and
- * Sets a floor of "gross negligence" or intentional misconduct for persons who donate grocery products.
